Numb. 10827.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday April 23, to Tuesday April 26, 1768.

Extract of a Letter from Fort St. George in the East Indies, dated October 8, 1767.

WE have received from our Camp the following Account of the Defeat of the joint Forces of Nizam Ally and Hyder Ally, near Trinomallee, on the 26th of September last, by the Company's Forces, under the Command of Colonel Smith.

From the Field of Battle at Errour near Trinomallee, Sept. 27, 1767.

" YESTERDAY Evening, after several " Manœuvres on both Sides, we brought " the Enemy to an Action, and have effectually " routed them. They endeavoured at first to " turn a warm Cannonade upon our Left, and " as we could not well come at their Guns on " Account of a Morass in Front, we were or- " dered to endeavour to turn their Left round " some Hills which lay in our Front. We " did so, and presently brought them to an " Action, which, after a very smart Fire, ended " in their Defeat. Our Loss is small, the Ra- " pidity, with which our Troops advanced upon " them, allowing them to do us little Harm, " every Thing considered. We lay on the " Field all last Night, and, as soon as we could " distinguish Objects, we marched this Morn- " ing in Pursuit of them: They made a faint " Shew of Resistance, but are gone entirely off, " as it is thought, through the Changama-Pass " into the Baharah-Haul Country. We fol- " lowed them till the Strength and Spirits of our " Army were quite exhausted, and obliged us to " halt on the Spot we are now encamped, which " is about Eight Miles on the Road to Chan- " gama from Trinomallee. Last Night we " seized Nine of their Guns, and are now in " Possession of about Fifty Pieces of their Can- " non, which they could not carry off in their " precipitate Retreat. Both our Officers and " Men behaved with the greatest Resolution. The " Enemy's Loss must be great, but cannot be " ascertained, as the Moment a Man is killed " or wounded, his Companions carry him off.

" The Prisoners inform us, that our Cannon " made great Havock among them.

" We learnt since, that Fourteen more Pieces " of the Enemy's Cannon have been found " among the Bushes.

Whitehall, April 23, 1768.

Whereas it hath been humbly repreſented to the King, That notwithſtanding the great Pains which have of late been taken, and the well adapted Plan which the moſt Principal of the Manufacturers in Spitalfields are at this Time vigorouſly purſuing for the Benefit of the Journeymen in every Branch of the Trade, yet a great Number of evil diſpoſed Perſons, armed with Piſtols, Cutlaſſes, and other offenſive Weapons, and in Diſguiſe, aſſembled themſelves together about the Hour of Twelve in the Night of the 14th Day of April Inſtant, and forcibly entred the Dwelling-Houſes and Shops of ſeveral Journeymen Weavers reſiding in and near Spitalfields aforeſaid, and, after putting them in corporal Fear and Danger of their Lives, cut to Pieces and deſtroyed the Silk-Works then manufacturing in Sixteen different Looms there, belonging to Meſſ. Phipps and Everard, of Artillery-Lane, the Damage whereof amounts nearly to the Sum of Two Hundred Pounds upon the moſt moderate Computation: His Majeſty, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſons concerned in the ſaid Outrages, is hereby pleaſed to promiſe His moſt gracious Pardon to any one or more of them, who ſhall diſcover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, ſo that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. SHELBURNE.

And, as a further Encouragement, the ſaid ſeveral Manufacturers do hereby promiſe a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds to any Perſon or Perſons making ſuch Diſcovery as aforeſaid; to be paid on Conviction of any one or more of the ſaid Offenders, by their Attorney and Soliciter T. Phillips, in Wood-Street, Spitalfields.
